CofC Given Property for Building Site

Mrs. McManus Donates Land to City in Transfer

City Council Tuesday accepted with thanks a gift of property from Mrs. Pearl McManus, and immediately turned the land over to the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce as the site for its new building.

The property, located at Amado and Barristo Road, is 50 by 104 feet and is valued at approximately $45,000.

Roy Colegate, attorney for Mrs. McManus, has been working on the deal for two months to set up the gift of 50 per cent of the total property. The Chamber of Commerce had started a trust fund to pay for the other half of the property, which amounts to some $22,000.

Now that the land has been gifted to the city and in turn back to the Chamber, construction of the new building will get under way by next year.

Earl Hough, president of the Chamber, said that the organization would get a loan for construction of the building.

In the deed to the city, Mrs. McManus stipulated that the property would be used for promotion and advertising to the benefit of the Village.

As the council completed its action Tuesday, Mayor Florian Boyd and Councilman Jerry Nathanson each donated $5 to President Hough to "start the fund for the new building."

New Hospital Addition Bids Asked by Board

Plans for the new proposed addition to Desert Hospital are now available to prospective bidders, and deadline for submitting bids will be at 2 p.m., August 10, Administrator Robert Henwood reported today.

This is the second time bids have been asked, with directors of the Desert Hospital District rejecting all bids the first time, terming them "excessive."

THE ORIGINAL PLANS have been revised by the architects, Williams, Williams, Williams, Clark, Frey and Chambers, in an effort to bring the new addition within the funds approved by voters at a special bond election. The approval of the $350,000 expenditure was by a three to one majority.

After the bids are opened August 10, there will be approximately a two week delay in awarding the contracts while all bids are studied thoroughly by directors, Henwood said.

Even if the bids are within the bond issue approved, the addition will not be ready before the winter season is well under way, the administrator said.

THIS WILL MEAN that the hospital will continue in its seasonal overcrowded condition for one more year, he added. Last year, capacity of beds was reached many times, necessitating either the turning away temporarily of non-emergency patients, or else placing them in emergency beds until regular facilities became available.

At the present time, Henwood reported, there are more than 20 patients at the hospital, which has a 38-bed capacity.

Occupancy this summer to date has ranged between 15 to 20 per cent ahead of last year.

City Waives License Fee for 3 Businesses

Three civic organizations received the customary waiver of city license fees from city council Tuesday afternoon, the American Legion, Youth Center and O'Donnell Golf Club.

All are non-profit organizations, and subject to fee waivers.

200-BED EMERGENCY Civil Defense Hospital unit arrived here Wednesday morning, and will be stored at Desert Hospital warehouse until needed. Watching the unloading operation are William J. McLarty of the Medical and Health Division of the California Disaster Office; Dick DeLong, administrative assistant to City Manager R. W. Peterson, local Civil Defense director; Harry Hill of the city's engineering department, and Robert Henwood, Desert Hospital administrator. (Desert Sun Photo)

Social Service Law Adopted By City Council

In 30 days the City of Palm Springs will have a new Social Service ordinance.

Based on the principal of a law now in effect in the City of Los Angeles, the ordinance calls for an application on behalf of all charity drives to be tendered to the city clerk, and these applications after being reviewed by a board, appointed by the council, will be given approval or disapproval of the body.

The aim of the new law introduced by council Tuesday, is to curtail the free soliciting of funds in this community and guaranteeing a profitable portion of the collected monies to the charity for which the drive was launched.

The new law last month was attacked by Rabbi Leon Rosenberg who declared that it was "unconstitutional," and a "blackmail ordinance," and would "cost the city between $6,000 and $10,000 a year."

Arnold Rumwell, local attorney and member of the committee which drew up the law, told council Tuesday that the ordinance had proved itself in other communities and "that Palm Springs must have the protection."

In discussing the 60 per cent minimum clause, Rumwell said that the inability of the fund-raisers to show this amount turned over to the charity, would show prima facie fraud, but with organizations like Desert Circus, which every year turns hundreds of dollars over to local charities and organizations, there would be no thought of fraudulent handling of funds.

As an example of the other extreme, Rumwell told the council of a woman who last year put on two shows in the Village for the benefit of two hospitals in Los Angeles. At the same time the local hospital was forced to turn down its construction bids because they were in excess of the monies voted. "I think that charity should begin at home," added Rumwell.

Councilman Jerry Nathanson moved to adopt the ordinance, and there were no dissenting votes.

$100 License Fee Refund Approved

Request by Mrs. Lola Sandefor for a $100 refund for business license fees paid during the past four years while she has been operating a boarding home for children under the county welfare program, was approved by city council Tuesday afternoon.

City Manager R. W. Peterson said that recent state legislation provided that such homes be exempt from city licensing.

200-Bed Emergency Civil Defense Hospital Unit Stationed in Village

All equipment for a 200-bed Civil Defense emergency hospital arrived in the Village yesterday, and will be stored in the warehouse at Desert Hospital to meet the possibility of an enemy attack or other major catastrophe.

Palm Springs is one of 20 sites selected in California, and is the last to receive the $25,000 unit.

The unit which arrived here at 8 a.m., Wednesday, weighs 13 tons. It includes a 15-kilowatt auxiliary generator and a 1500-gallon water tank and pumping unit. There is complete equipment for an examining room, three operating rooms, wards with a total of 200 beds, clinical laboratory, X-Ray room, central supply room, sterilizing room, and pharmacy.

FLOOR SPACE NEEDED in event of emergency to set up all these facilities is 15,000 square feet. No tentage arrived with the unit, with local public or private buildings expected to be used for this purpose, according to Robert Henwood, Desert Hospital administrator.

Other cities where Civil Defense emergency hospitals have been established are: Davis, Vacaville, Yountville, Inola, Gilroy, Decoto, Moraga, Redwood City, Kingsbury, Bakersfield, San Luis Obispo, Camarillo (four), Oxnard, Vista, Del Campo and Ontario.

Federal Savings Group Starts Future Planning

Plans for the establishment of a federal savings and loan association in Palm Springs got under way during the past week with the meeting here of four of the organizers. Permission to organize the association was granted recently by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board in Washington, D.C., which conducted a hearing on the application last fall.

Participating in the formation of plans were William Tackett, Charles Farrell, Oliver Jaynes and Percy Whiteside. With the other applicants, Charles Becker and Andrea Leeds Howard, they will become directors of the association when Federal requirements have been complied with and the charter granted.

The new financial institution will be known as Palm Springs Federal Savings and Loan Association. Prime objective of the new association, it was stated, will be to encourage thrift and home ownership in the area. Savings will automatically insure up to $10,000 by an instrumentality of the Federal government when the charter has been granted. The association will be authorized to make home loans up to 80 per cent of appraised value, with terms up to 20 years. A limited number of commercial loans can also be made, it was explained.

Oliver Jaynes was named by the group as chairman of the organizing committee.

ter Office; Dick DeLong, administrative assistant to City Manager R. W. Peterson, local Civil Defense director; Harry Hill of the city's engineering department, and Robert Henwood, Desert Hospital administrator. (Desert Sun Photo)

The 200-person medical team needed to operate the unit includes 10 physicians, 20 registered nurses, 125 nurses aides and trained auxiliaries, and 75 orderlies and miscellaneous workers. Cadres for the team has been organized, and is ready to function.

THE VILLAGE IS expected to be one of the major points of evacuation for Southern California, with Los Angeles county supervisors already taking action to prepare for air evacuation to Palm Springs of injured persons, women and children in case of an H-bomb attack.

Other cities where Civil Defense emergency hospitals have been established are: Davis, Vacaville, Yountville, Inola, Gilroy, Decoto, Moraga, Redwood City, Kingsbury, Bakersfield, San Luis Obispo, Camarillo (four), Oxnard, Vista, Del Campo and Ontario.

Tamarisk Road Corner Rounding Plan Continues

Corner widening program on Tamarisk Road as a safety measure moved one step nearer completion Tuesday afternoon, when city council voted acceptance of grant deeds from Joseph Schenck. The program has been advocated for some time, with the impetus being the blind corners which are caused by trees and shrubbery on corners leading off Tamarisk. Council, when receiving grant deeds, is conducting a corner rounding program.

Two grants deeds were given by Schenck, with one having been received previously.

E. L. Yeager Bid Accepted by City

A bid of $24,195.46 submitted to the city by E. L. Yeager Company for the laying of waterlines and conduit for the palm trees on South Palm Canyon Drive, was approved by the City Council Tuesday afternoon.

Robert Warsoc Company, low bidder on the project, was refused the bid for failure to provide a bid bond and a signed affidavit of non-collusion. The Warsoc bid was for $22,913.

Frank Green, held here on morals charges, appeared Tuesday in Palm Springs Judicial Court and had his case continued until July 24, at which time a new judge will hear the case.

An affidavit of prejudice was filed with Judge Eugene Theriau on the basis of the judge's friendship with one of the complaining witnesses in the case.

Green was represented by Attorney Henry Cleary, who is handling the defense until the appointment of a public defender.

CONSTRUCTION OF THE by-pass of Highway 111 at Araby point is well under way this week with E. L. Yeager company pushing for the construction of the new bridge. City Starts New Action on Sewer Bond Election; Planned for Spring

Palm Springs voters may be faced with a new $3 million sewer bond election next Spring.

City council agrees on the need for such an election, but disagrees on which company should conduct a financial study of how the entire program should be financed, and act as consultant during the bond election.

Although no vote was taken Tuesday afternoon, council was definitely divided at its meeting on which of two firms to hire, J. B. Hanauer of Beverly Hills, or Stone and Youngberg of Los Angeles.

THE LATTER FIRM submitted the low bid, $14,750, but the other firm which submitted a bid $250 higher said that its study would not cost the city any money if the bond election was not approved by the voters. Cost of the initial study is estimated at $3,500.

The proposed sewer improvement failed to pass by the required margin in the recent election which presented seven issues to the voters.

At that time, council warned that unless improvements were voted, additional connections to the city sewerage system could not be made. The plant was being used to capacity during the fall and winter seasons, it was stated.

Council Tuesday was unanimous in expression that a bond election was essential, but differed in the start of such a plan.

COUNCILMAN FRANK Miller moved the hiring of Hanauer, pointing out that a savings of $3,500 may be made if the election was unsuccessful. His motion was seconded by Jerry Nathanson.

Other councilmen said that the other firm made the low bid, and came with the highest recommendations which could effect a savings in the bond interest rate.

Councilman Jerry Nathanson deferred further argument until the next meeting by moving that the matter be tabled. It was.

Flood Control Policy Reaffirmed by City

City Council Tuesday afternoon reaffirmed its policy of not permitting construction in the Tachevah Flood Control channel area until adequate protection has been provided for buildings.

U.S. Army engineers are currently conducting studies of the project in Section 10, and are expected to complete their report early this fall. The plan then will go to Washington for review, and recommendations.

Coroner's Jury Places Blame On Dead Man

A coroner's jury returned a verdict Tuesday morning of negligence on the part of a Pasadena, who suffered fatal injuries in a car and truck collision at the intersection of Highway 99 and Indian Avenue.

A woman passenger in the car, Lillian Furst, 53, 400 North El Molino, Pasadena, was killed when the car in which she was riding with Benjamin Pressman, 61, collided with the truck.

Pressman, critically injured, was taken to Desert Hospital where he died Monday morning. California Highway Patrol officers said that the Pressman car was traveling south on Indian Avenue, when it collided with an eastbound truck at the highway intersection. The automobile rolled and skidded from the point of impact to under the new overpass now under construction, some 45 to 50 feet away. The truck, minus its front wheels, slid almost a thousand yards, according to people at the scene.

Driver of the truck, Clayton A. Nichols of San Antonio, Texas, was not injured in the accident.

Two Improvement Projects Move Along

City council Tuesday afternoon approved Improvement District No. 19, the paving of Santa Catalina, and ordered the work started.

In Assessment District No. 18, installation of sewers on Camino San Miguel, council overruled the protest of Mrs. Marian R. McNally, 3181 Camino San Miguel, and adopted a resolution confirming the spread of assessment.

The controversy centers around the common corners of Sections 23, 24, 25 and 26. All development has been by the city's claim of alignment, and not by the Land Management Survey which is 60 feet east.

Smoke Tree Ranch, which would lose approximately 60 feet of western boundary, triangle shaped, by the Bureau of Land Management survey, is sharing expenses of the trip with the city.

City, Federal Officials Start Meetings Today

Councilman Jerry Sanborn and Director of Public Works Frank Hamerslag are conferring today in Washington, D.C., with officials of the Bureau of Land Management of the Department of Interior in regard to a disputed boundary line in the Smoke Tree Ranch area.

City officials received promises of support from Congressman John Phillips and U. S. Senator Thomas Kuchel in regard to their stand, prior to the departure of the two men yesterday.

Lightning Bolt Flattens Cows

WELLSVILLE, Utah—Dairymen Reid W. Parkinson today warned colleagues against turning on milking machines during thunder storms.

He said a flip of his milker switch during a recent storm knocked 11 cows flat and killed five of them.

Parkinson said a bolt of lightning apparently was fed through defective wiring into the cows, electrocuting them. Total cost: $1,500.

Jackie Cochran Starts Active Reserve Duty In Washington, D.C.

Two weeks of active duty with the United States Air Force was begun this week by Jacqueline Cochran Odlum of India, nominee of the Republican party in the 29th Congressional District, as she reported to the headquarters in Washington.

The active duty period will maintain her lieutenant - colonel commission in the Air Force, a rank she has held since World War II.

Besides being an internationally famous speed pilot she attained widespread distinction in World War II as the head of the group of women's pilots known as the WASPS, who flew planes to scattered U.S. and Allied bases. Prior to entry of the United States in the war she directed a corps of women pilots in service with the British RAF.

Following the Air Force duty, during which she is expected to see the latest in AF developments in planes and guided missiles, she will return to California in time for the meeting of the Republican Central Committee in Sacramento and later for the Republican National Convention.

Prior to reporting to the Air Force for duty in Washington she was honored at a luncheon given by Congressman John Phillips, representative in the 29th District, with the California GOP delegation, and Minority Leader Joseph Martin and his assistant, Congressman Charles Halleck of Indiana as special guests.

PALM SPRINGS' ALL-YEAR CLUB

Lots of people have been predicting during the last few years that Palm Springs is going to develop a year 'round economy instead of having to depend on the "winter season" for its prosperity. The trend has been in that direction and it is probably safe to say that this is the busiest summer we have ever had. Most of this increased summer activity has, however, been the result of natural growth. Too few have had real confidence that a summer tourist business can be developed and backed it up by operating the year around.

One of these is Sam Levin, owner of the Palm Springs Biltmore. It was years ago that Sam became convinced that people would come here in the summer if good facilities were made available to them. He knew that it would take a few years to get summer operations on a profitable basis but he decided to stick it out. Those who have visited the Palm Springs Biltmore this summer have seen for themselves how successful it can become to operate a hotel here in the summer.

Irwin Schuman has also demonstrated that it can be done in the restaurant business. He is, in fact, the real pioneer in keeping open all year, and having the Chi Chi open during the summer has been a big help in attracting summer visitors. It has also helped a lot to have Bullocks open during the summer the past few years. More retail stores are open all summer this year than ever before.

fore and most of them are reporting a very good trade.

What is needed now to stimulate summer business is a concentrated effort. We have pointed out how successful Florida has been with the "package deal" summer vacation. There are many other devices that can be used. Above all we must have more for the visitors to do. The time is not far off when Palm Springs should plan its campaign for summer business just like it is doing so successfully to attract winter vacationists and residents. The winter season has now been developed to the point that more time and effort can be spent to promote the summer season.

There is another opportunity to improve the economy of the Palm Springs area in both summer and winter. It is the establishment of some light manufacturing businesses here. There are many that would be suitable to a resort area and would in no way injure the area as a recreational and resort community. They would furnish year around employment and would have no difficulty in obtaining employees. We will have more to say on this subject in the near future. It is something to which our business interests should give a lot of thought.

Now is a good time to be giving some thought to the promotion of summer business. We get too busy in the winter time to think about it, and when another summer rolls around, it is too late to do very much.

A Vicious Crime
Red Creek (N.Y.) Herald

The vicious assault on Victor Riesel by a hiring of labor union racketeers has shocked the public and honest labor leaders into action. Certainly this punk, who threw sulphuric acid into the eyes of the man who has done so much to expose these racketeers must be apprehended. But that is not enough. The men behind him, the men who feared the honest efforts of Riesel to clean up these malodorous shysters who operate against the people and against the union themselves, must be apprehended and punished as they deserve.

We are glad that men like George Meany, president of the A.F.L. and C.I.O., recently affiliated, have declared their earnest intent to make war on these men who are using the unions to make money for themselves. We are glad, too, that Governor Harriman visited Riesel in the hospital to assure him of the sympathy of the people of the state and determination to bring labor racketeers to book and drive them out.

Riesel in his syndicated newspaper column exposed the criminal practices of the few crooks. He also gave evidence to a grand jury in New York toward their indictment. And Riesel is a union man, who wants to see the unions kept clean.

This crime must not be forgotten. Every possible step to find the assailant of Riesel and those behind him must be taken without any relaxing of effort. The clean and honest leaders of organized labor will cooperate in this task for they want labor rid of the vicious few who dishonor it.

In A Preferred Position
(From The National Review)

Each second the world tots up a net population gain (births minus deaths) of a little more than one person. Every day there are another 110,000 mouths to be fed. To assure the world an adequate diet, the Population Reference Bureau says that 150 square miles of new farm land should go into cultivation each day.

This casts a new light on the farm surplus problem in the United States. That problem, difficult as it is, seems sure to be a temporary one. In the long pull, U.S. farmers will have their jobs cut out to meet the needs of our soaring population.

In the less developed countries, it is true, great quantities of new farm lands eventually can be brought under cultivation. That is certainly not a possibility ity here. We are still losing farm lands—to roads, industrial sites, suburbs, and so on. So far as anyone can see, our farm acreage is pretty well fixed.

What, then, will be the solution when in years ahead the pressure will be on each acre to produce more and more food and fiber? The answer is simply better farming.

The American farmer is in a preferred position in this. Of his tools, modern farm equipment stands out. It reduces costs—just as it cuts to a minimum the amount of human labor needed to perform farm tasks. And, while making greater productivity possible, it can perform the equally important duty of conserving and improving the land for future generations.

Peak in 70's
Windsor (Ontario, Canada) Star

An American industrial psychologist has taken a close look at persons of advanced years, and concluded that the peak of efficiency reached in the thirties may continue "on a rather level line" into the seventies. Anyone's personal observations will show there is a great deal to bear this out. And there are evidences that in their eighties some persons have higher mental levels than many of us ever hope to achieve. An example is 81-year-old Sir Winston Churchill, soon to begin publication of his monumental four-volume history of the English-speaking peoples, an effort that will be extended across the next two years.

With the many recent improvements in automobile construction, there really is no need to drive with the left elbow resting on the window sill and the hand holding up the top. The roof is not going to fall in.

Unless some police officer who knows all of the California Vehicle Code, spots you. For the CVC specifies that, in driving both hands must be on the wheel. Confusing, too. The driver behind doesn't know whether a right turn is being indicated or the guy ahead is just sloppy. And dangerous. A noted surgeon said last week that crushed arms are becoming common because so many drive with an arm dangling outside.

THE TRAGIC Grand Canyon air crash, fatal to 128, stunned the nation. But the death of 121, just seven fewer, in Fourth of July traffic accidents five days later, didn't raise a murmur. Highway deaths apparently are so common—they average 700 a week—that they are no longer news.

Because the deaths are not concentrated in one accident, people are not shocked by the toll. Besides many of them go on the theory that accidents are for other people.

But it could happen to any motorist just as it happened to the 128 on the ill-fated airplanes. The deaths of 35,000 annually on our highways SHOULD be of some concern.

YOU JUST CAN'T get away from the commercials. Now it is proposed that advertisements be put on the back of our paper money and stamps. Would boost the national income and eliminate some of the many federal taxes, it was suggested. Can see possibilities in that. For instance Bing Crosby could advertise on the back of stamps and flavor the glue with orange juice.

COMES A POSTCARD from Grace Emery, local educator, now touring Europe. Postmarked "Helvetia," it detailed how she drove through a blizzard and walked through snow on June 21, the first day of summer. Of course, it mentioned the usual two blankets and added a new touch, a feather comforter. But I just smirked. Helvetia care. It's cool here at the beach, too.

SAW THIS ADVERTISEMENT in the "personal" columns of a Long Beach newspaper yesterday.

"Bill, please don't get that divorce. I have taken driving lessons."

That was good for 30 minutes of meditation and contemplation, on my part, of life in Bill's family circle.

TWO LITTLE LETTERS, transposed in the preparation of an article for public consumption, can make a whale of a difference and be so embarrassing. For instance, take the case of that editor who wrote an editorial endorsing the request of a school principal for a raise in salary.

The editor thought he had done a great job until he picked a copy of the paper off the press that afternoon and found that his punch line had come out like this:

"Prof. Blank should get lost more than he does."

Congressional Report

By JOHN PHILLIPS

The history books record that the "depression dominated" 1930, but it was not until 1932 that the same books record the "depth of the depression" reaching the west. Depressions and prosperity, like the population, move from east to west. Unemployment increased, in the two years, from 4,000,000 to 13,000,000. We still spent more money for cigarettes, liquor and the movies than we contributed to our churches. The government was moving professionally (and I mean professionally!) into the field of relief.

Four thousand widows and gold star mothers visited the graves of the men buried in Europe, as guests of the government. Pluto was discovered, the ninth planet. There was one auto for every five people. Dry ice was introduced, the planting of hybrid corn became general in the middle west. President Hoover proposed remedies for the depression which were refused by a Democratic-controlled Congress and later adopted by the next Democratic-controlled Congress and credited to Mr. Roosevelt. Sinclair Lewis got the Nobel prize for literature.

CONGRESS APPROPRIATED money for public buildings, and to build roads, to make work. "The Star Spangled Banner" was designated as the national anthem. Deterium was discovered, without which there would be no atomic program. President Hoover proposed a moratorium on international debts. Only Finland is recorded as saying she would prefer to pay. Post and Gatty flew around the world in eight days, 15 hours, 51 minutes. Japan marched into Manchuria. Al Capone was sentenced to jail and fined for income tax evasion, thus putting a price of $50,000 on that crime, as compared with wholesale murder. The hunger "marchers" drove through the San Geronio Pass in automobiles on their way to Washington. We entered 1932.

Stocks fell to 10 per cent of the 1929 peak; farm prices to 40 per cent. National income was cut in half. Dr. Lawrence built the first practical cyclotron at the University of California. Vitamin C was isolated. Technocracy was the fad. Hattie Caraway of Arizona was elected the first woman Senator. Japan attacked Shanghai. The United States wrote them a letter. The World Disarmament Conference opened at Geneva, under the League of Nations. There were no results. We have had pretty much the same results from practically all subsequent international conferences in which we have taken part. The Lindbergh baby was kidnapped. The "lame duck" amendment to the Constitution was adopted.

FRANKLIN ROOSEVELT broadcast a speech about the "forgotten man," who was eventually discovered to be the citizen still trying to pull through the depression without going on relief. Amelia Earhart made the first transatlantic flight, by a woman. Roosevelt accepted the nomination of his party with a speech, one sentence of which read, "I pledge you, I pledge myself, to a new deal for the American people," and a new expression entered the English language. That same convention adopted a platform promising a marked reduction in federal costs. There were other excellent planks. Any party needing a platform can undoubtedly get this one cheap. It is as good as new and shows no signs of use.

The War Memorial Opera House was opened in San Francisco. Bank holidays began. The tomb of the unknown Soldier was dedicated in Arlington. The House of Representatives went Democratic almost three to one, and the Republican Round Table was set up in the House restaurant. The St. Lawrence Deep-Waterway Treaty was signed with Canada. Twenty-two years later, the Congress decided to do something about it.

That was the national situation when I went to Sacramento. I had no intention of writing a weekly letter to the papers. As a matter of fact, I probably had more curiosity than intentions of any kind.

GRIN AND BEAR IT By LICHTY

"What I had in mind was avoiding the bitterness, the feeling of injustice, the resentment that's usually caused by starting at the bottom!..."

BILL RASHALL

Unedited

We pointed the nose of our automobile into the churning current of squealing tires and whining motors Northward. And once again, thanks to a swell guy by the name of Ward Risvold (my boss incidentally) we became a small dot in the massive flow of automobiles carrying somebody somewhere on a vacation.

Here it must be inscribed that there are no highways in the world like those existent in California. They are broad esplanades leading to the never, never land; the Shangri La of your choice, for as long as your job will permit you to stay to become drunk with the beauty that is California.

Then there was San Francisco—its Golden Gate, its bridges, the many places in which to eat and the various kinds of food to tease your palate. And, of course, the St. Francis Hotel where Dan London hangs his hat. Where Herb Caen writes a column for the San Francisco Examiner. Where Lew Lurie hangs his hat also and made his millions. Who invited me to lunch with him and I reneged.

I KNOW LURIE, about whom an article appears in the July 7 issue of Saturday Evening Post entitled: "Angel With the Midas Touch," by Francis Chase, Jr. After reading the story I could have kicked myself all over the Seven Hills of San Francisco for not keeping the date. I had met him for the first time in Sol Lesser's home, and he swiped a dollar from me. He remembered and wanted to pay it back too, which even makes me a greater sucker. Lew "Mr. San Francisco" Lurie, I just couldn't imagine you having any fun with a guy like me—a ruffian! So I stayed away.

AFTER DISPENSING with the chores handed me verbally by the Boss like calling on an account or so and visiting our national advertising representative, the Western Dailies, the room at the St. Francis looked inviting and the bed even more so.

While the better half and Kate were out shopping I walked about the lobby of this hotel and ran into more people from Palm Springs than one could shake a stick at in one solid minute.

I learned one thing in talking with John or Jack McCoy as most people in Palm Springs knew him when he worked under Uncle Fred Ingram of the Bank of America, and that is: the small town boy doesn't have to go to the big city in Horatio Alger style to make good. If you have the stuff, opportunity will knock at your door even in Palm Springs and pull you upward by the suspenders you wear. It did for McCoy. He has a terrific job with the Bank of America here. Assistant to one of the vice presidents of the home bank here, he makes three or four trips Eastward each year. The rest of the time he spends in San Francisco and commutes via train to his home and five kids in Hillsboro.

"This is the loveliest city I have ever worked in, with the possible exception of Palm Springs," McCoy said. "How fortunate can a man be to have worked in two of the most glamorous cities in California? Palm Springs and now San Francisco." He is happy. Loves it here and he still retains his interest in the Horizon Trailer Village.

ON MY WAY TO church Sunday saw a familiar figure completely block the wide entrance to one of the elevators which had just descended. It was none other than James Campbell. In his shirt pocket espied a ticket of Western Air Lines and sure enough he was rushing to catch the limousine for the airport and his return to Palm Springs. Did I say completely obliterate the entrance to the elevator. He did and more, cause here is what he said: "I've been gorging myself on sea food since arriving here several days ago."

Ran into one of Keith Herbert's old friends who almost became the owner of a hotel in Palm Springs, Douglas Winslow of Glendale. "And," he continued "I may still own a hotel there or at least a home."

And who do you think was standing right behind me in the lobby, Bob Beck? None other than Jerry Collins, one of your former clerks. He is busy building a home on the highest hill in Berkeley.

"But I'll be back in Palm Springs this fall or sooner," he proclaimed. "My arthritis is kicking up on me in this cool, damp weather."

And Dr. Cecil P. Jones admonished before I left the desert: "When you smoke you are creating your own smog condition."

Will be rolling Northward again tomorrow.

EARL WILSON:

Russian Gals Have 'New' Look

MOSCOW—There are falsies in Russia.

In this land where everything's allegedly starkly realistic, the bosom is often a gay deceiver.

The Russians don't like to admit this... they make quite a display of their contempt for sex appeal... But the women are known to wear 'em... though they don't falsify as much as our "very outstanding" American girls.

The Russians wear smaller falsies and not as many women go in for hoodwinking the men... but the practice is growing... and so are the falsies.

"We Russian women don't believe in sex appeal," the Russian glamor gal Irina Skobtseva said recently at the Cannes Film Festival.

"The Russian women don't—but the Russian men do!" replied an American friend of mine.

FOR AN ESPECIALLY sexy effect some of the Russian gals wear white bras that show through black transparent blouses.

One pretty Russian doll seemed to have a couple of rhinestones in her bra, shining through her blouse, gilding the lily, so to speak.

"They even wear their bras in swimming—I guess bathing suits are expensive," an observing American tourist (masculine) told me.

I went to a fashion show at "Gum" (pronounced Goom), the big department store, to look into this.

On the way as we walked around blistering hot Red Square I saw many flat-heeled, shawl-wearing women and very few hats. Hats are too costly for many women.

I wished to see a Russian model, Tamara.

London fashion models here for an exhibition had become excited over her and invited her to London.

Inside the "exhibition hall" all was changed. Tamara and a dozen other models minced up and down as at an American fashion show... a pianist and fiddler in shirt sleeves played modeling music... including "I Can't Give You Anything But Love, Baby."

THEN OUT CAME a boy model!

He wore Moscow's newest thing—patch pockets, a belt in the back, and four buttons in front—which Irving Heller and Cy Martin are pushing right now in New York.

I met Tamara in the "director's" office.

Very smart, she wore an Italian hairdo, high heels, and a red-and-white taffeta sheath with fly-away panels which the B.W. said was new in New York last fall.

It'll be new in Moscow this fall—as this was the autumn showing.

The London fashion models are quite disappointed about the Russian men.

"We hoped we'd have to fight our way out of all sorts of compromising positions with them," one English model related. "Instead, we've been reduced to the indignity of going out with British and American newspapermen. The Russians have ignored us."

"The Russian men," she said, "are carrying that don't-mix-with-foreigners idea too far."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL IN N.Y.

Rocky Marciano will enter a hospital for observation of a possible ruptured spinal disc... Marilyn Monroe spent an hour the other day buying underwear at a 34th St. wholesale house... Marion Marlowe's taking flying lessons—but not from her former boss. MGM's grooming Cyd Charisse for the roles Ava Gardner nixed.

The "Grand Ole Opry" hillbilly TV'er goes highbrow July 21, with Marguerite Piazza as guest... Dr. Benjamin Gilbert, a B'way favorite, is off to visit Dublin's Jewish Lord Mayor... Aly Khan's former honey, Bettina, is due here in the fall to show her clothes for designer Valia De Milly... With titles sprouting all over, Elaine Weiss was named "Miss Totem Lodge."

Life magazine will profile Sammy Davis, Jr. Blind crooner Al Hibbler started his 30-city tour, at 11G's a week... "Love Story" will be Barbara Stanwyck's fourth film this year. She says, "I feel uncomfortable when I'm not working."... Singer Eileen Barton and agent Vic Jar-mel celebrated the first anniversary of their battlescarred romance... Sophia Loren, making a film in Spain with Sinatra and Cary Grant, stepped on her foot during a dance and busted a bone. Dizzy Gillespie's South American tour was called off by the State Dept.—things too unsettled down there... Robt Mitchum refused $250,000 for his share of the film, "Bandido." Says Bob, "That's my retirement insurance."

Thrifty Drug Offers Trips To Mexico City

Mexico City, vacation capital of romantic old Mexico, will have 10 additional visitors during the coming year when Thrifty Drug Stores send winners of their "July Value Days" on a complete five-day vacation to the world famous Hotel Reforma.

Thrifty's lucky winners will board a luxurious DC-6B of the Compania Mexicana de Aviacion (Mexicana - Pan American Airways) at the International Airport in Los Angeles. The non-stop 5½ hour flight includes meals and refreshments in reserved seat comfort.

WINNERS WILL ENJOY five days and nights at the Hotel Reforma, located on the Paseo de la Reforma near the heart of the gay Mexican capital. All meals and accommodations are included in the winners' hotel stay.

Sightseeing around the shops of La Reforma, as well as short trips to Xochimilco Floating Gardens, University City, National Palace, the Bull Fights, and the Shrine of Guadalupe can be included in the visitors free time.

The 10 complete trips will be awarded to five Thrifty winners who each receive vacations for two.

OTHER PRIZES in the month-long promotion include a 1956 Dodge Royal Lancer, styled by Dodge for California driving, five Philco automatic washers, and five Riviera convertible sofa-beds. With 16 big prizes, contestants have plenty of opportunity to win. Details of the exciting "July Value Days" promotion are available at the Palm Springs Thrifty Drug Store, or in the Thrifty advertisement elsewhere in this paper.

Wrong-way Door

ADRIAN, Mich. — A deputy saw Mrs. Wade Willett, the sheriff's wife, drive towards the jail garage. He thought the door was closed and pushed a button to let Mrs. Willett enter. But the door which had been open, banged down on the Willett car, smashing the windshield.

Due to the many demands for information on Loans to California Veterans, we are releasing some of the very latest data received from the State of California, Department of Veterans Affairs. For more detailed information consult any realtor.

Vital to any California veteran is the fact that the Cal-Vet Loan Priority Cards are now being issued for the larger State farm and home loans. These loans, becoming available this month, can be applied for by filling out a simple application card. This places the veteran on a waiting list, in a certain priority order; the card will then be mailed back to the veteran when the Department of Veterans Affairs is ready to consider a loan in his priority group.

First applicants to be considered on and after July 8, will be disabled or wounded veterans — and veterans requesting not more than $10,000 loan for a home or $20,000 for a farm.

The low-cost State financing plan was amended by Legislature last spring to permit the Department of Veterans Affairs to loan up to $13,500 to a veteran to build a dwelling on a lot he already owns, up to $15,000 to purchase an existing dwelling, or $40,000 to finance a farm.

Of importance to note is that moving this new plan into high gear depends on the approval of a $500,000,000 veterans bond issue in November. This financing plan has enjoyed an enviable record for 35 years. Started in 1921, the plan has been administered since then without cost or loss to the taxpayer.

Priority groups for non-disabled or wounded veteran are as follows:

Priority Order	Loan not to Exceed
1.	$10,000
2.	11,000
3.	12,000
4.	13,000
5.	14,000
6.	15,000

Only applications in the first priority will be processed until further notice. A veteran claiming preference for disability must show documentary evidence that he now has, or at sometime had, a war-time, service-connected, compensable disability. Veterans may be considered to have been wounded when they can present a military record showing a wound or the award of a "Purple Heart."

The Desert Sun Thursday, July 12, 1956

Eligibility requires the following: Veteran must have been born in California and or have entered wartime military service from this state. Veteran must have served for a period of at least 90 days — unless he was disabled sooner or is a WW I veteran — and some part of his service must have been during WW I, WW II, or the Korea conflict. Normal credit requirements must be met. Interest rate, though subject to change, has been three per cent for 10 years. Along with low interest goes home protection life and disability insurance, fire insurance at little or no cost, and reliable inspection and appraisal of his property.

I'm going to let you in on a wonderful beauty secret. Drink Carnation Slender. That's right! You see, wonderful Carnation Slender not only helps you stay stylishly slim, but it also supplies the vital milk nourishment you need for clear skin, bright eyes, extra pep — all the things that make a woman truly beautiful.

Surveys show that we women often stop drinking milk in our teens, yet we need its health benefits every bit as much as our husbands and children do. Carnation Slender is the best way I know to put those benefits back in your diet — without adding extra calories. And it tastes so good, too.

You bet you are. We get burn up plenty of energy every day just getting through our household tasks. We need protein to keep us going. Carnation Slender is fortified with extra nonfat milk solids to provide more of this precious, energy-giving element than even whole milk.

You can't be a beauty without a pretty smile. We all need calcium for strong healthy teeth and bones. Where do we get it? From Carnation Slender, of course!

Don't Snap at Your Husband!

Carnation Slender can't work miracles, but it does give us the important minerals we need to help keep our appetites up to per and our dispositions a little more even.

It always takes a ten-minute break in the middle of the morning, and another in the afternoon. I prop my feet up and enjoy a big, tall glass of Slender. I find it keeps me feeling refreshed and looking lots more glamorous, too.

COME INTO OUR PARLOR!

The Shangri La Property Owners Association held a party for the community at the pool Saturday evening. On the committee which put on the party were: Mr. Everett Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Singler, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Floyd, Mr. H. M. Lennie, Mrs. Grace Gillum, Mrs. Vincent Leone, Mrs. Hazel Pries, Mrs. Ida Hailey and Mrs. Nova Gray.

For the entertainment there were three dance numbers by seven-year-old Frances Romero of Indio. Mr. Harry Oliver gave a short talk, primarily to reassure the audience that, in spite of the wind that night, Shangri La is a great location.

Mrs. Eleanor Lennie won the door prize, a Hawkeye Camera set donated by the Willis Photo

Shop. Raffle prizes were one six ounce jar of instant coffee, donated by Wallace Grocery, and won by Mr. Chas. Hulbert. Two five gallon allotments of gasoline given by Thompson's Texaco and won by a guest from Indio. Two free meals donated by Marlowe's Cafe were won by Mr. Sam Chroman, and one thermos can by Mr. Chroman, and by Mrs. Pat Cohen, from Palm Springs. A set of dishes was won by Mr. William Kennedy, and a barbecue grill was won by Mr. Meyers, from the Shadow Hills ranch.

The McGill Date shop opened for business in its new home across from the former location, Monday, and already is a popular stopping-off place.

Mr. Johnny Ivey is spending the summer with friends in Fullerton, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Mills are vacationing in Northern California this next week.

The Thousand Palms Community Sunday School was invited by the North Palm Springs Sunday School to attend services at their Meeting House, last Sunday, and then go on to Banning for a picnic dinner. Fourteen accepted the invitation and enjoyed the day.

Mrs. Frank Gild and three children from Compton, California, visited a few days this week with her mother, Mrs. Edna Smith. Mr. Gild spent the Fourth here, before taking the family home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Enns returned home Saturday evening from a vacation through Kansas, visiting with friends and relatives.

Miss Eve Finson returned home after a vacation in Columbus, Ohio.

Council Sets Meeting Dates

City Council adopted a summer meeting schedule at its regular session this week.

All meetings will be at 3 p.m., on July 31, August 21 and September 11.

At the August 21 session, the official tax rate for the City of Palm Springs will be adopted.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Williams and family are vacationing in Mexico for two weeks.

Guests over the weekend at the Jack Singler home were Mr. and Mrs. Hubert V. Crehan from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and Mr. Andrew Crehan, and their niece, Madeline Crehan, from Pasadena.

JERRY LEWIS, frequent visitor to Palm Springs to enjoy the desert sun, enjoys the view of Skip Lawson, who is wearing a Desert Sun carrier boy tee shirt. Miss Lawson, who was Chamber of Commerce publicist here two years ago, resigned last week as publicist for Lewis following the break-up of the Lewis-Dean Martin team. She reported this week that one more team movie may be made, with all other previous commitments being satisfied by either Lewis or Martin. Miss Lawson now plans to spend an indefinite vacation with her brother in Bogota, Colombia, but will retain her home in Palm Springs.

Former Village Publicist Heads For S. America

From Palm Springs to Las Vegas to Hollywood, and now to South America.

This is the next stop for Skip Lawson, who served as assistant publicity director for the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce two years ago.

She will leave September 1 for Bogota, Colombia, to vacation for an indefinite period with her brother and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Lawson. He is a geologist with Socony Vacuum of Colombia.

PRIOR TO that time, she will vacation three weeks in Las Vegas, and then go to Indianola, Iowa, to spend August with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Lawson. Dr. and Mrs. Lawson and their children, Drake, 10, and Dana Lou, eight, also will be there and the family plans to celebrate Christmas in Iowa in August, complete with decorated spruce tree on the lawn before they all return together by Grace Line to Bogota.

Miss Lawson, after leaving the Chamber position here, was publicist for the Shadow Mountain Club in Palm Desert and assistant publicist for the Sands Hotel in Las Vegas, and then was secretary for comedian Jerry Lewis.

SHE LEFT the latter position when the Lewis-Dean Martin split-up occurred after the completion of their last picture. There is a possibility that they may have to appear in one more movie together, she reported, with the team being committed for three but with Hal Wallis having agreed to let each one make one separate movie. Television commitments will be made by one or the other, with no team work planned there.

Prior to coming here with the Chamber of Commerce, Miss Lawson was a stewardess with the Flying Tiger Line, making trips to the Orient and Europe.

Walruses got their name from Norse sailors, who called them "hvalross," whale horse.

Villager Busy At Washington In Girls Nation

Margaret A. "Peggy" Schuler of Palm Springs, and Virginia Schroeder of Mentone, California's two representatives at the American Legion Auxiliary's tenth annual Girls Nation program at Washington, D.C., are currently studying the organization and processes of Federal government.

The tightly-packed six-day schedule includes visits to the White House, Congress, the Supreme Court, Department of State, and the Pentagon, with side trips to Mount Vernon and the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

The girls have organized their own model of Federal government, including electing a President and Vice President from two competing political parties, the Nationalists and Federalists.

Speakers to the group have included Secretary of State John Foster Dulles; Mrs. Bowden D. Ward of Kingwood, W. Va., national president of the American Legion Auxiliary; Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest, Treasurer of the United States; Mrs. Everett Dirksen, wife of the junior U. S. Senator from Illinois.

Which one of these Riverside County people own Bank of America stock?

Chances are that several of them do... because more than 800 of your Riverside County neighbors are Bank of America stockholders. We think this is good for you and good for the county. First, as part-owners these stockholders give local opinion to the bank's policies and administration. Second, with the total money they receive each year in dividends, (currently more than $180,000), they can buy more goods and services from local business... help the county grow. Bank of America is statewide, sure... but local, too!

Little League Game Friday Night May Decide Championship of Loop

By LINDSEY NIELSON

Friday night's game could tell the tale whether or not the Hathaway-Buick Braves will walk away with Little League Championship for the city, or be forced into another game with the only opponents that have been able to score against them, the Junior Police.

The Braves have beaten the Junior Police twice, but last week the Police turned the tables on the Braves and tore down their hopes for a straight high score win through the entire series.

The Little League series is speeding up now, with the players really getting into the full swing, and Monday night four homeruns were tallied. One of these was a grand-slam homer.

In the first game Monday night, the Junior Police completely overpowered the Cameron Stars, with a score of 16 to 4. Even though the score was very one-sided, both teams showed marked improvement since their last contest. Clark Stone smashed a homerun for the Cameron Stars, and Michael Helm pitched a five-hitter with five strikeouts. Helm and Terry Olvera teamed their hitting power for the game and scored a total of seven runs.

The second game had the people in the grandstand sitting on the edge of their seats, when the Braves beat the Boys Club 13-8.

The game was highlighted by a grand-slam homerun by Carlos Reyes, and another homer by Brent "Pancho" Hough, who brought in a man on base. Hough and Reyes also did some scoring during later innings to cinch the contest for the Braves.

FIRST GAME

Score by innings: R
Junior Police 247. 3-16
Cameron Stars 011 2-4
